DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 1 recites the limitation "my service" in last Line of Claim 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kasiviswanathan (US Patent Number: US006215857B1).

Regarding Claim 1, Kasiviswanathan discloses a Direct Voice Mail Access (DVMA) method for leaving a voice mail message in a telecommunications system (reads on a method for leaving a message using a touchtone cellular or landline telephone and any telephone company service), comprising the steps of:

Utilizing a code *xx (i.e. *99) followed by callee Subscriber B's Number to direct-dial callee's voice mail box within the voice mail system [Reads on Step (a)] [Column 4, Line 7-12] [Figure 2 & 3] [Column 4, Line 34-42]; in which callee Subscriber B is provided with a voice mail feature service [Reads on Step (b)] [Column 4, Line 45; Line 61-65].
